The Order of Reunion consists of following [from Pilgrim’s Guide @2016, pages 129-130].

A. Opening Prayer

Prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us Pray: O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

- 2. Moment Close to Christ – What was the moment in which you felt closest to Christ?
- 3. Apostolic Success – What apostolic action did the Lord want to accomplish in His Church through you?
- 4. Apostolic Failure – What apostolic action did not turn out as you had planned?
- 5. Plan – How was last week’s plan fulfilled? What are your plans for next week?

An Explanation of Apostolic Success, Apostolic Failure and Apostolic Plan:

Apostolic Success – will be the apostolic activity which came about as desired, brought us happiness, and fulfilled the jubilant promises the Lord made to us in the Gospels and repeated in Cursillo: “ask and it shall be given to you”; “the Holy Spirit will tell you in that hour what to say” and so forth.

Apostolic Failure – our apostolic action does not always give us joy, or the feeling of effectiveness. Sometimes its fruit causes concern and unrest to grow within us. It does not happen, as we had desired, as when the seed seems to fall on rocky or thorny soil. But sometimes, human failure, through no fault of our own, is only the beginning of even greater divine success. One sows, another waters, and another reaps.

Apostolic Plan – it is necessary not to abandon what was begun in the name of the Lord, and so it is necessary to review the actual state of previous plans. In this way there is made evident in the reunion the spiritual living together and the continuing union of ideals among the members of the group. The plans for the following week are that which intends to encourage the Christian living of all (in the group) during the coming week.
